- b) Legislative
- c) Judicial
- d) Administrative Answer: b) Legislative

Explanation:

The legislative branch, primarily Congress at the federal level, is responsible for drafting, debating, and passing laws. This separation of powers is fundamental to the U.S. government structure, ensuring no single branch has unchecked authority. The answer aligns with constitutional principles outlined in the U.S. Constitution, especially in Article I.

2. Question on Checks and Balances

Sample Question:

How does the President check the power of Congress?

- a) Vetoing bills
- b) Declaring laws unconstitutional
- c) Appointing Supreme Court justices
- d) Issuing executive orders

Answer: a) Vetoing bills

Explanation:

The presidential veto is a key check on legislative power, allowing the President to reject bills passed by Congress. While the President can influence legislative outcomes through other means, the veto is the constitutional mechanism explicitly designed for this purpose. The other options relate to different powers: appointing justices is a presidential power but not a direct check on Congress; declaring laws unconstitutional is a judicial power; issuing executive orders is an executive action but not a check on Congress.

3. Question on the Judicial Branch

Sample Question:

What is the primary role of the Supreme Court?

- a) Enforce laws
- b) Interpret laws and the Constitution
- c) Make laws
- d) Administer elections

Answer: b) Interpret laws and the Constitution

Explanation:

The Supreme Court's main function is judicial review ? interpreting laws and determining their constitutionality. This role was established in Marbury v. Madison (1803). The Court does not enforce laws (executive branch), make laws (legislative), or administer elections (elections are managed by states and other agencies).

4. Question on Federalism

Sample Question:

Which of the following is an example of reserved powers?

- a) Coining money
- b) Declaring war
- c) Regulating education within states
- d) Conducting foreign policy

Answer: c) Regulating education within states

Explanation:

Reserved powers are those not delegated to the federal government and are retained by the states. Education regulation is a classic example of state authority. Coining money and declaring war are federal powers, and conducting foreign policy is primarily federal.

5. Question on Electoral Processes

Sample Question:

What is the purpose of the Electoral College?

- a) To directly elect the President by popular vote
- b) To serve as a buffer between the popular vote and the presidency
- c) To elect Senators and Representatives
- d) To approve presidential appointments

Answer: b) To serve as a buffer between the popular vote and the presidency

Explanation:

The Electoral College was established to balance the influence of the popular vote with a layer of electors who ultimately select the President. It was designed as a compromise during the Constitutional Convention, balancing federal and state interests.
