The narrative centers around four main characters: Binodini, a young widowed woman; Ashalata, a married woman; Mahendra, Ashalata's husband; and Behari, Mahendra's childhood friend. Historical and Cultural Context

The Bengal Renaissance and Tagore's Era

Rabindranath Tagore was a central figure of the Bengal Renaissance, a period marked by cultural revival, intellectual awakening, and social reform in Bengal. During this time, traditional social structures and orthodox customs faced questioning, especially concerning gender roles and individual freedoms.

Chokher Bali reflects these tensions. It was written during a time when women's roles were confined within rigid societal frameworks, yet the characters in the novel embody the desire for self-expression and autonomy.

Social Norms and Expectations

In early 20th-century Bengal, widowhood carried significant social stigma. Widows were often expected to lead reclusive lives, suppress their desires, and adhere to strict codes of conduct. This backdrop provides a poignant setting for Binodini's character, who embodies both the constraints imposed on women and their indomitable spirit.
