Animation cels are transparent sheets—originally celluloids—upon which characters and scenes are hand-painted for traditional animation. Before the advent of digital animation, each frame of a cartoon was meticulously crafted on these cels, which were then photographed over backgrounds to produce the animated sequence. Today, original animation cels are highly valued as collectible art pieces, representing a tangible connection to the animation process and the characters' lifelike expressions.

Key aspects of animation cels include:

- Hand-painted quality: Each cel is individually painted, showcasing the artist's skill and attention to detail.
- Limited editions: Many cels are produced in limited quantities, increasing their rarity and collectible value.
- Historical significance: Cels serve as authentic artifacts from a specific era of animation, often including signatures or certificates of authenticity.
